Privacy Statement

Notice

Allegiant International LLC (Allegiant) is firmly committed to your privacy. You should understand what we do with any personal information that you provide to us while using our site. That's why we've created this Privacy Statement, which discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices.

Overview

In general, using our site as a site visitor may be considered anonymous: we do not engage in any activity that will personally identify our site visitors. We may use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our website, and to refine our site based on which features people use most often. Your IP address may also be used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information.

Registration

Using Allegiantworks.com does not require registration of any kind other than voluntary registration for white papers, marketing material, access to our career-board and registration to send communications to Allegiant. The personal data collected will not be sold to anyone outside and will be solely used by Allegiant for a one-on-one contact with the registrants, with the exception of when the user applies for a job on this site or forwards a resume to Allegiant. Any information that we have collected or stored about you may be transferred to a future purchaser of our company and/or its assets. The data collected is stored in a secure server with our ISP which will take periodic backups of it but will not give or sell them to anyone.

Cookies

A "cookie" is a small piece of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your system. We may be using just session cookies in a select few pages and we may use it more widely in the near future so that we can better serve you when you return to our site. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether to accept it or not.

We sometimes collect anonymous information from visits to our website to help us provide better customer service. This anonymous information is sometimes known as "click stream data". We may use this data to analyze trends and statistics and to help us provide you with a better customer service. Cookies can be used to provide you with tailored information from a website.

Links

This website contains links to other websites. Allegiant is not responsible for the privacy practices or the contents of such websites, nor do we take any responsibility for the opinions of third parties expressed on or through our website.

Delete/Deactivate

This site gives users the following option for removing their information from our database to not receive future communications or to no longer receive our service. To delete your record from our database, send us an email at info@allegiantworks.com.

Change/Modify

This site gives users the following option for changing and modifying information previously provided. Send email to info@allegiantworks.com to request a change.

Allegiant reserves the right to modify or update our Privacy Policy at any time without notice, so we encourage you to review this policy from time to time.
